

Summit Midstream Partners, LP Responds to FERC Announcement

March 16, 2018

THE WOODLANDS, Texas, March 16, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Yesterday, the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("FERC") announced that it will revise its 2005 Policy Statement for Recovery of Income Tax Costs so that it will no longer allow MLPs to recover an income tax allowance in cost of service-based rates. In response to this announcement, Summit Midstream Partners, LP (NYSE: SMLP) confirms that it does not currently provide services pursuant to FERC jurisdictional cost of service-based rates, and as such, SMLP does not expect to be adversely impacted by yesterday's announcement from the FERC.

About Summit Midstream Partners, LP

SMLP is a growth-oriented limited partnership focused on developing, owning and operating midstream energy infrastructure assets that are strategically located in the core producing areas of unconventional resource basins, primarily shale formations, in the continental United States. SMLP provides natural gas, crude oil and produced water gathering services pursuant to primarily long-term and fee-based gathering and processing agreements with customers and counterparties in five unconventional resource basins: (i) the Appalachian Basin, which includes the Marcellus and Utica shale formations in West Virginia and Ohio; (ii) the Williston Basin, which includes the Bakken and Three Forks shale formations in North Dakota; (iii) the Fort Worth Basin, which includes the Barnett Shale formation in Texas; (iv) the Piceance Basin, which includes the Mesaverde formation as well as the Mancos and Niobrara shale formations in Colorado and Utah; and (v) the Denver-Julesburg Basin, which includes the Niobrara and Codell shale formations in Colorado and Wyoming. SMLP is in the process of developing new gathering and processing infrastructure in a sixth basin, the Delaware Basin, in New Mexico. SMLP also owns substantially all of a 40% ownership interest in Ohio Gathering, which is developing natural gas gathering and condensate stabilization infrastructure in the Utica Shale in Ohio. SMLP is headquartered in The Woodlands, Texas, with regional corporate offices in Denver, Colorado, Atlanta, Georgia, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania and Dallas, Texas.
